Re: The New York Times Company v. Health Resources & Services Administration,
24 Civ. 1892 (VSB)

Dear Judge Broderick:

The parties to the above-referenced Freedom of Information Act litigation commenced by plaintiff The New York Times Company ("Plaintiff") against defendant Health Resources and Services Administration ("HRSA"), a component of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, submit this joint status letter as proposed in the parties' May 23, 2024 letter to the Court (ECF No. 10).

Since the parties' November 25, 2024 status report (ECF No. 15), on January 15, 2025, HRSA released non-exempt portions of ten attachments to previously-released e-mail records that Plaintiff had selected. HRSA has also agreed to exercise its discretion to withdraw some withholdings from a workbook that had been released to Plaintiff on November 15, 2024, and intends to release a revised version of the workbook to Plaintiff on or before February 14, 2025. Plaintiff has represented to counsel for HRSA that, within one week after receiving HRSA's revised record, it will determine whether it will voluntarily dismiss this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41, or seek to challenge one or more aspects of HRSA's fulfillment of its obligations under FOIA. Accordingly, the Government respectfully requests that the parties be given leave to either file either a stipulation of voluntary dismissal, or file another status report outlining proposed next steps in this matter, on or before February 28, 2025.

We thank the Court for its consideration of this letter.

Hon. Vernon S. Broderick
